Mission Update – February 25, 2010

"Sharing God's message of hope in action"

MISSION TO INDIA - MARCH 2010

On March 8th, I'll be leaving for India with my good friend Chuck Moore. We'll be in India for a total of 8 days working with DC & Sona Kaushal in and around the Delhi and Punjab states of northern India, including the city of Amritsar.

Below is a list of some of the things DC has scheduled for us to do while in India.

- Go to the Living Hope Slum School in New Delhi. We've been supporting this school with your gifts on a regular basis.
- Go to the Living Hope Children's Home they're building in Punjab. Future home for 150 orphans and street children.
- Go and minister to a group of pastors and their families in Amritsar. These leaders were trained by DC and Sona and oversee hundreds of village churches in the northwest regions of India. Some are very close to the Pakistan border. Each pastor/missionary ministers to a group of village churches in an area that is predominately Hindu, Muslim or Sikh. Please pray God gives us the words to refresh and encourage these ministry families. What an honor it will be to meet and serve these heroes of the faith!
- Go and minister in the village churches in the Amritsar area.

(Please note: If you would like a copy of our daily schedule in order to pray for us, please e-mail us.)

Would you please keep us in prayer as we GO?

- Pray for God's blessing on our families while we're gone.
- Pray for God's will and oversight as we travel to and within India.
- Pray for God's wisdom as we adapt to a new and very different culture and minister there for the first time.
- Pray for provisions for the trip. We are still in great need of finances to fund the trip and to share blessings with the ministries while there.

In His Service,

Please continue to pray for all the ministries in Peru! These include: Hector Del Carpio, the other leaders and pastors, the Hearts on Fire Bible School and for all the children and workers in the Feeding Centers. Please know that we thank God continually for you and for your continued partnership in ministering to the precious people of Peru.

Haiti Earthquake Relief Update

Thank you for your gifts for Haiti Earthquake victims! Those gifts have enabled us to send supplies and financial support through our missionary friends to those in need. After sending the initial shipment of supplies with a medical team on a missionary flight to Haiti, we sent your gifts:

- To Ed Lockett's ministry with Missionary Ventures in Petit Goave just west of Port au Prince.
- Through the DIRT Team (Disaster International Relief Team) working with Calvary Chapel/Port au Prince in Petionville. They've set up a tent community and are ministering to the people with food and medical care. This team was originally scheduled to be in Peru at this same time to help us train up a disaster relief team in Lima. Instead, they were able to go to Haiti.
- Through our friend Dave Besares who will be in Haiti for three weeks working with MV teams. Please pray for Dave as he helps the Haitian people put their lives back together with much needed practical relief help combined with the message of God's hope and love.

Please pray for wisdom as we continue to distribute your gifts to those in great need!
